Location

The property is located in a commercial area lying approximately 1 mile due north of Sandy town centre, within the Central Bedfordshire Council. Close to Sandy town centre and just over 1 mile to the south is Sandy Railway Station which has a scheduled service to London St Pancras International of approximately 45-50 minutes. The nearest junction of the A1(M) is approximately 900m to the west, to the north of England and also down to the M25 south. The nearest major town is Bedford lying just over 7 miles to the West.

The property is approximately 45 miles north of London, 8 miles east of Bedford, 4 miles north of Biggleswade and 22 miles southwest of Cambridge. The subject property is situated on the well-established Sunderland Road Industrial Estate and offers a prominent position.

Description

The property comprises of a mostly flat and level site of regular dimensions occupying a prominent corner plot of the north end of the Sunderland Road Industrial Estate. It has palisade fencing to the road frontage, as well as palisade gates set back from Beamish Close to the northern end of the site. Boundaries with adjoining sites are a mix of palisade chain fencing and chain-link fencing.

The site is currently used for storage of excavators, cranes and other machinery, and currently has a covered maintenance area, as well as portable cabins on site offering office accommodation with toilet and shower facilities. The site has a drainage system or interceptor at the southern end of the site. The site has access to power and water.
